TRY RICHESON NOW, DEMANDS JUDGE HARRIS

Demand for an immediate trial for Rev. Dr. Clarence Richeson, charged with the murder of Miss Avis Linnell, was made today by former Judge Robert O. Harris, attorney counsel for the accused minister, on the ground that the pastor is innocent. He had a long conference with Chief Justice Alden of the Superior Court, after which District Attorney Pelletier was called to the Chief Justice's office.

NO CASE, DECLARES JUDGE HARRIS. JURY DISAGREES IN GRAFT CASE

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 28.—The jury in the case of Timothy Donohue, charged with offering a bribe to Alderman Michael J. Connelley in connection with the Worcester grade crossing work, today returned a verdict after being out about 2:45, and the jury was discharged. Two during the morning the jury had come to a decision of guilty, but before it finally agreed on a decision.

Tells of Bribery.
Charge of graft in the Worcester grade crossing work were first published yesterday in the Boston Sunday AMERICAN. This copy was followed by the charge of Alderman Connelley that a $1,000 bribe was offered him to stop the investigations of the alleged graft in the grade crossing work. Two other men are said to be tried.

Comerford Tells His Story.
Comerford on the witness stand said: "Donohue told me, Donohue and Fitzgerald are interested in this grade crossing work and the investigation. What would you get out of this? I can tell you I will give you $1,000 if you will let me go. I told him he was right and asked him to come at 11:45. He left. I asked J. P. Comerford to serve him self in a cup and eat the cake. Donohue took and said the cake of the morning would be taken care of."

BOY SERIOUSLY HURT BY AUTO

Carl Tuttle, nine years old, who lives at No. 25 Dover street, is in the City Hospital with his right leg fractured and suffering from several severe lacerations, as the result of being knocked down on a street by an automobile truck. Frank Anderson, driver of the truck, was taken from the street to front of the car and was made to check his speed. He struck the rear end of the car and was thrown the auto, the rear wheels passing over his head. The lad ran out.

CLARENCE RICHESON'S OWN STORY

Exclusively in To-morrow's SUNDAY AMERICAN

"I saw him in the jail and we talked heart to heart, my boy and I. 'Clarence, my boy,' I said to him, 'I am your father and I want you to tell me the truth. I want to know the truth, just tell me that, my boy. That's all I want to know.' 'Father,' he said, 'I will tell you the truth.'"

For the remainder of what the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson said to his father in his cell in the Charles Street Jail, regarding the mystery of Avis Linnell, see to-morrow's SUNDAY AMERICAN. The interview is reported by COL. THOMAS VARLAND RICHESON, father of the accused pastor. It will appear exclusively in the SUNDAY AMERICAN.

Big Business Is Here to Stay

"The effect of the operation of the business system here is to create a new business system, and it is to be expected that the United States Supreme Court in the future will have to decide upon the validity of this system."

HOLY CROSS TO BATTLE TIGERS DARTMOUTH TO PLAY VERMONT

[illegible]

PRINCETON, Oct. 28.—The Tigers will face Holy Cross this afternoon in their first game of the season. The Princeton team is severely handicapped on account of injuries to many of its strongest men, and the most Coach Lattin hopes for is for his team to win.

The Princeton team is much heavier than their opponents and should find little difficulty in winning. The visitors are expected to put up a good fight, but are expected to make a great exit, hoping that the HANOVER, Oct. 28.—Dartmouth and Harvard of Vermont will play this afternoon on Alumni Ground and the green team should win by a large score. Coach Taylor will try out many substitutes in the game. The Dartmouth team will play a new play a trial in a game before the green is forced to tackle the Amherst, Princeton and Harvard eleven.

The Harvard team has several strong players. Coach Cavanaugh will not send many players to the game. The players are Mearns, Jewell or Hoggatt into the line.

The backfield is a troubling "three back" unit. Quarterback Earl Exeter is the quarterback and Faye is kept on the sidelines on account of his slightly injured right arm. Exeter is a sophomore and Faye at quarterback and Pendleton at halfback.

EXETER, Oct. 28.—Exeter is ready for the freshmen from old Nassau this afternoon, but there has been a busy week in preparation. Yesterday in the rain Coe College defeated the freshmen 14-0. Exeter smashed the faults of the Coe team as best he could, but is reticent on the outcome. Exeter will be fully as strong as the freshmen, but will be a little rusty. Yale freshmen last before the Harvard team on November 31.

Corbett left afternoon on Soldiers Field before the Brown game. Harvard wins one out of the fastest freestyle matches in the world. The American team will play a tough game tomorrow's American.
